What to know

The policy is designed to be straightforward. Here are the key details to review.

Benefits and value

- Single or joint coverage is available for the term of the loan.
- The premium is included in loan payments, so there is no separate bill.
- Coverage may pay the loan in full if a covered borrower dies.
- If the loan is paid off early, any unearned premium is refunded.

Who is eligible

- The maximum enrollment age is 64 in most states.
- No medical exam is required. Eligibility is based on age and applicable questions.
- Coverage can only be purchased with a loan.

Exclusions and limitations

- Benefits are paid to the creditor first and applied to the loan balance.
- A suicide exclusion typically applies.
- Coverage may not pay the entire balance.
- See your certificate for complete terms, exclusions, and limitations.

Important

Coverage, eligibility, exclusions, and benefits may vary by state. Review your policy or certificate for complete details.
